New Children and Parent Feedback
October 2023

Our Induction Process

The induction process of our new children joining Bradleys Both is an important part of the smooth transition from pre-school / nursery to school life. We hope that we have helped and supported you and your child during this time. Our induction process has included:

Pre-school

- Visit to tour our school with Headteacher
- Class teacher contact with pre-school / nursery
- Introductory welcome letter inviting you to a Stay and Play session
- Attending a Stay and Play afternoon in July

Starting school in September

- Induction settling in mornings in first week, staying for school lunch for one day
- Full time attendance from second full week
- Reading Letter with guidance and links to Little Wandle
- The Class Curriculum Parent Meeting (3.10.2023)
- Open door policy enabling you to speak to classroom and school staff members
- Contact with the School Office

Responses were gained from 14 out of 19 families (74%) (one child = 7%)
